Three men, each a director of the Grossmont Hospital District have filed nomination petitions for re-election. Louis M. Peelyon, hospital administrator said this week. They are: R. Marvin Jackson, board president; Homer Streich, treasurer and Forster L. Boyd, board member.

An election is scheduled for November 20, Peelyon said. No election will be necessary however if no other candidates file petitions before September 15.

Peelyon said that elimination of an election would save the hospital district between $15,000 and $20,000.

Helix Graduate Stricken With Polio

Michael Roehm, 17, a graduate of Helix High last June and expecting to enter State College in September, was stricken with polio three weeks ago and has been in isolation ward at county hospital under expert treatment for two weeks. He was expected to be moved to another hospital Thursday of last week, as his isolation period was finished at that time. He was taken off the critical list on Thursday.

Prior to being taken to the isolation ward at county hospital, Michael suffered intense pain. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roehm, of 7562 Roosevelt Avenue, were almost prostrated. Michael is their only child. On Wednesday Mrs. Roehm told a reporter for THE REVIEW that Michael was much better, but how long he will be ill has not yet been determined by physicians. Some cases require two years treatment.

Mrs. Roehm said Michael had been working very hard this summer to get money for his college expenses, and had possibly overdone it. He did yard work and had a number of clients, besides keeping up the yard of his home.

Mrs. Roehm wishes to thank her neighbors for their many kind acts during Michael's illness, and is especially grateful to the four boys from La Mesa Chapter of D. M. M., who came over and cleaned up the Roehms' yard in a masterful manner, all voluntarily, "to help Mike out."

Michael attended San Diego High School before the family moved to Lemon Grove a year or so ago, when he entered Helix High. A good student, with never a special report to "please call and see teacher," always asking his parents before going out in the evening "when do you want me home tonight?"

Victory Predicted As Local Republicans Name Erwin President

Lemon Grove Republicans rallied to the call Monday night and heard County Republican Central Committee Chairman, Dr. Frank Lowe predicted a resounding victory in November for all area GOP nominees. The meeting was held at Junior High School Cafeteria.

At the meeting Roy Erwin, local insurance man, was elected president of the Lemon Grove Republicans Club. Also elected were Lee Thompson, vice president; Mrs. K. D. Lund, secretary; and Mrs. Zee Schmitt, treasurer.

Erwin said that another meeting would be held in September to implement Republican policies at the precinct level.

Dr. Lowe said William "Bill" Shearer, assembly candidate who shared the speaker's platform with him personified active, hard working young Republicans. He predicted that Shearer would be elected as assemblyman of the 77th District. Dr. Lowe said that the "new look" in the party made it "as young as the Young Republicans and old as Lincoln himself." He pointed out that Shearer was not a candidate but

Water District May Build New Home on University Avenue

A new home for the Helix Irrigation District to cost $100,000 to be financed from the sale of two properties now owned by the district was proposed last week by district directors.

The development is predicated on obtaining a suitable site from the city of La Mesa and on the sale of the district owned property at a price near its appraised value.

L. B. Stallard, a San Diego appraiser, valued the pieces at $28,500. Property at Nebo and Orange is worth $28,500 and that at Spring Street and Orange is valued at $47,000, he said. Both BROADWAY ACCIDENTS 'THE MOST'

In the first six months of this year, Highway 94, which includes Broadway in Lemon Grove, accounted for 48 of the south county's 113 accidents, it was revealed here this week in a special report filed with this newspaper by Guy Daniels, safety education officer for the California Highway Patrol. This represents 42% of the total.

Of the 113 south county accidents, two were fatal. These two deaths occurred on Highway 94. Broadway, Highway 94 or Federal Avenue, whatever you may choose to call it, is the most heavily travelled highway in this area of the county and a detailed study reveals that every main thoroughfare in the area had at least one accident this year so far. In 91% of the accidents, one or more violations of traffic laws were involved.

Here is a breakdown of accidents:

Three accidents occurred at Broadway and College Avenue, two at Broadway and King Street and one accident each at Harris, Calavo, Jackson Road, Federal, Washington, Rogers, Main and Imperial. The other 34 accidents on 94 occurred on the highway at locations other than intersections.

Jamacha Road is the next highest roadway with ten accidents listed.

Six accidents each are listed on Imperial and also Broadway. Other high accident streets include Skyline Drive, Bancroft, Church Street and Sweetwater Springs Road with four accidents each. Three accidents occurred on Massachusetts, Avocado, College, Main, Helix and Palm Streets.

Breakdowns By Types

In breaking down the types of roadways where the accidents occurred, it is interesting to note that only 37 of the 113 accidents surveyed occurred at intersections. The remaining 76 accidents happened at locations where no cross streets are involved. Records show that three accidents occurred at U. S. 94 and College Avenue and three at Church and Olive Streets. These two intersections statistically are the most dangerous in the area.

Analysing the types of accidents, it is interesting to note that of the 113 accidents, 33 involved only one car. The most common type of accident was running off the roadway and hitting a fixed object. There were 21 of this type. Twelve cars went off the roadway and rolled over. All of these accidents are 100% driver error and entirely preventable.

The next leading type involved two cars at a stoppage point intersection. Sixteen accidents of this type were reported. This also is the type of accident that can be prevented by proper observance of the traffic laws.

Rear Ends

Rear-end collisions accounted for 16 accidents. In almost every case, following too closely was the direct cause. Many people fail to realize that because of the reaction time and braking distance involved that following another vehicle too closely can be disastrous. One car length for each ten miles per hour is a safe rule to follow.

Improper left turning accounted for 11 accidents and improper passing caused eight mishaps. Six accidents were caused when motorists entered a through highway without yielding to the vehicle on the highway. Five accidents were caused by the ever-increasing bad practice of driving slow in the inside lane of traffic on a four lane highway. The law specifically states that slower moving vehicles shall drive in the right lane on a multiple lane highway.

Other miscellaneous accidents caused include four hit and run accidents, two of which were hitting a parked car. Five accidents occurred where a car hit a pedestrian and four involved a car hitting bicyclists. Several accidents occurred due to fairly uncommon violations such as passing a school bus when the red lights are flashing, backing up without a clear view of the road behind, failing to signal turns and stop properly and other violations. One child was injured falling out of a moving car.

These accidents are not in the true sense of the word—accidents. They are not acts of God nor are they accidental happenings. They are caused by one or more violations of the law. They are caused by carelessness, lack of understanding of the necessity for traffic laws, lack of acceptance of responsibility by each and every motorist for his own personal safety.

Dr. Good Seriously Hurt In Auto Accident

A retired dentist, Dr. Charles Good, 7562 Central Avenue, a long time resident of Lemon Grove was seriously injured Tuesday evening in an auto accident at Mission Valley Road and Fairmount. Grossmont Hospital reported his condition Wednesday as "poor." Good's auto collided with one driven by Betty Thompson of 5199 Kearny Valley Rd. Tuesday at 6 p.m. She was less seriously injured than Good.

Dr. Good retired from dental practice more than a score of years ago and has been active in a dairy he owns near Santee with his son Hugh.

Dr. Good was county supervisor for two terms near 1930. San Diego City police have issued a citation against Good.

Supervisor Announces Reduction of Sanitation Taxes At Men's Club Meeting

Twenty-six gentlemen, including two higher-ups in County Government, gathered round the tables set in the Acapulco Room at Michael's on Friday noon to hear an interesting and instructive talk by Supervisor Dave Bird, good friend of Lemon Grove for the past 16 years.

Dave was accompanied by Jean Vincz, Director of Public Works, who said he was not a speaker, but had gathered some data on a reduction for the Lemon Grove Sanitation District and had accompanied our Supervisor to have him collate them.

Introduced and later voted in unanimously as members were Byron Pogue, Walt Allen—he is our new advertising man for the REVIEW and we'll have a story about him next week. Dave Bird and Jean Vincz have been regular members from previous visits.

Ken Barwick made his usual announcement that members who had missed one or more meetings please send up a quarter for the kitty, but the response was faint.

Following the consumption of the entree and dessert and a second cup of coffee, Tony Sonka took over. He was program chairman, had been instrumental in securing the Big Wheels in County Government as guest speakers.

Tony's first customer was Dr. Frank Gigliotti, who reported on his self-assignment of a survey of Broadway improvement. Jiggs said he had personally interviewed 18 property owners and tenants, all were in favor of the improvement as previously outlined, wanted to know the cost. He had been assigned to interview State College higher-ups as to having drawings made by the Art Class as a project, but the head man was away on vacation.

Harry Griffen, head of the Broadway Improvement project said, in response to Jiggs' statement that some folks felt "left out," that all property owners are invited, and that College Avenue folks, who were peeved at having Massachusetts Avenue set as western end of the project improvement, also Quarry Road folks, were invited cordially to lend their support.

"No limit to extent of the improvement" Griffen said. "Owners of any property fronting on Broadway, even up to Campo Road intersection, will be welcomed."

Moving of "the Lemon" to a site on the Freeway, so passers-by would know where they were was discussed. One gent said he doubted that our land mark would stand moving, another if the Freeway officials would consent. "Lemon Grove, Finest Climate on Earth," is Tony Sonka's battle cry. He signed the visitors' book that way at Carlsbad Caverns once years ago, when asked where he lived.

With the preliminaries finished, Dave Bird was introduced. Really, no introduction was needed, for Dave knew every man in the room by his first name.

Dave mentioned the lowering yearly of the Sanitation District tax rate, which a few years ago was 30c, last year 46c, next year 33c. He credited Monterey heights with starting the practice of a sewer connection charge to raise money to complete sewer installation for schools in that suburb of Lemon Grove, and of which we all are justly proud.

Other Sanitation Districts now follow that practice and get sufficient money to carry on, thus relieving the tax payer of a double burden. Connection charge used to be $50 for residences, $100 for commercial connections. They have gone up considerably of late. La Mesa charges $175. The charge for Spring Valley connections has not as yet been set.

About the time of Monterey Heights entry into the Sanitation field, Lemon Grove's needs in that direction were considered and Tony Sonka and other interested citizens raised $34,000 in cash with an 8 1/2% tax rate for maintenance. This year the rate has been set at 33c, as will appear on your next tax bill.

Sales tax for the county is being set at 3 1/2%.

Pearce Manor Revived—72 Homes to Be Built

Pearce Manor, a subdivision with west boundary at Citronella Street and paralleling Palm Avenue to the east to within a block of Washington Street, is being revamped and Custom Builders will start building model homes in a week.

Builders and dirt carriers are busy grading the low spots. Many truck loads of material have been hauled in for streets, which will be black-topped. The curbs are in and Long Dale Drive, the main street east and west, will be paved first, with cross streets installed in order.

Tons and tons of dirt have been hauled in, the grade of the subdivision has been raised, and the outlook for a fine addition is very pleasing.

Calvin Jeeters is superintendent of construction of buildings. He says all 72 homes will be first-class, three bedroom, two bath affairs, with curbs and sewer connections, no sidewalks. Selling prices for the homes have not been determined as yet. The lots will be 60 by 100 feet and larger, according to location and landscaping.

6,000 Members to be Recruited

William Allen Named To Head Little League

Lemon Grove's Little League organization elected permanent officers at a general meeting last week at San Miguel School auditorium, naming William Allen president, Harry Alexander vice president, Mrs. H. D. Penner secretary, and Mrs. Isabelle McCrea treasurer.

Committee chairmen were appointed at a July meeting at which time Mrs. Paul Louer was named chairman of the field procurement committee, Louis Pulizzi chairman of equipment procurement, and William Allen, publicity chairman.

In attempting to solve the first major problem—location of a suitable playing field—the field procurement committee is investigating the possibility of using the site of the future Lemon Grove Swimming Pool as a ball field.

The Lemon Grove Lions Club has offered to sponsor the development of a ball park for the Little League program, appointing Emmett Marshall and Bud Young to a committee for this purpose.

The finance committee, headed by Mrs. McCrea, launched a fund-raising campaign this week, spearheaded by a membership drive to recruit 6,000 members. Containers for contributions are also being placed in local business establishments.

The next general meeting of the Lemon Grove Little League organization is scheduled for Wednesday, September 5th at the San Miguel School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. All persons interested in the Little League program are welcome to attend this meeting.

Area under consideration takes in most of the new Hertziger-Harris 600 home project on San Alito, and the 500 home development already started west of Monterey Heights.

San Harris, by letter, has asked the post office department to permit his project to remain in Lemon Grove's postal jurisdiction.

Le Blanc said that San Diego had enough postal service headaches without taking on territory beyond its normal service area.

Warren Barney, chief of the engineering division of the public works department, said separate contracts will be let on trunk sewage lines and on the plant itself.

Control building of the plant will be brick and stone. Treatment facilities will be constructed of reinforced concrete. At present, sewage from Spring Valley, limited in amount, uses Lemon Grove transmission lines to San Diego under an agreement with Lemon Grove Sanitation District.

Another Annexation

La Mesa has snubbed off another chunk of unincorporated territory on Murray Drive east of Essex Street, west end of 22nd, sold to the city of La Mesa. The area charged into the hands of Sweet-

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

Some of the surrounding community publications, excited by the announcement that the College Avenue Shopping Center is going to be a reality now that Texas money has been made available for the center's development have been falling over themselves to get on the gravy boat by offering to "serve" Lemon Grove, by promising our businessmen such things as "complete circulation coverage" and "complete news."

This, obviously, is the first step toward gaining a foothold here so that they may tell the business firms in the new center that their publications have Lemon Grove coverage.

A couple of sour notes are evident in this otherwise dulcet symphony. First, these publications invite the readers to shop away from Lemon Grove by carrying advertising from San Diego, El Cajon, La Mesa, and elsewhere competitive to our local business firms.

For the record, the Lemon Grove REVIEW turns down regularly, advertising from away-from-Lemon Grove firms in order to encourage the shop-at-home spirit amid our community.

The originator of the College Shopping Center, George Scott, has announced at public meetings, and he was correct in so stating, that the REVIEW had rejected merchandise advertising from the Walker-Scott Department Store, the firm of which he is president.

Our policy is simple. We reject advertising, if it is competitive with any local merchant, unless the firm has a local outlet.

Secondly, we like to remember that as a newspaper, our formidable list of readers are paid subscribers. They pay for us because they want us. If they want the newspaper stopped they stop paying. It is as simple as that. Consequently, we are never plagued with our subscribers calling our office begging us to stop cluttering up their yards, a condition which makes for bad public relations with the publication and the merchants sponsoring it.

What irritates me currently is that scores of calls come into our office last week complaining about the "sluggish" delivery of an El Cajon publication.

One resident, K. E. Curtis of 8771 Valencia, came charging down on this newspaper office Friday with a double handful of one of these "free" papers. They had told him, when he called the office of the free publication to complain that approximately 300 copies of that issue had been dumped in his yard, that we were the culprits. So he brought them here and abusively offered to stuff them down our throat. After we explained that we had nothing to do with them he headed toward El Cajon, muttering about this state of affairs.

Then there is news! Well, I hardly know where to begin on that. One publication, last week in its issue dated August 18 carried, in sinking-of-the-Titanic-type, screamed "OK NEW LE SCHOOOL." It was a report of a story the LEMON GROVE REVIEW carried August 2, a full two weeks earlier, under the less frenetic heading "State Allocates $450,000 for New Junior High School."

While we're on the subject of media, I want to register my "beef" with television.

Last Christmas we gave our kids one of those music-box books. You turn the crank and it plays "My Darling Clementine" and you can follow the words printed on the inside cover of the device. Last week, when I came home from my daily labors, some six or seven of the neighborhood's kiddies were sitting with mine in our patio, regaling themselves in song. They were playing "Clementine" on the music-box book and singing the tv advertising slogan of Burgermeister Beer.

Voters May Register At Mayfair Market

Voters may register for the November election at Mayfair Market, Larry Childress, Lemon Grove manager said this week.

A Deputy Registrar of Voters will be on duty every day except Sunday from 11 a.m. until 7 p.m. to register Republicans and Democrats alike.

The service, which is free, will be offered until September 13th. Mrs. Charles McKenzie is the deputy in charge.

HORACE GORDON TO JOIN BAPTIST CHURCH

The 41st Baptist Church of Lemon Grove has called Horace Gordon to serve as Minister of Music and Education, coming from a similar position with the Pratt City Baptist Church, Birmingham, Alabama. Bro. Gordon will assume his duties with the Lemon Grove church September 1st.

Mrs. Gordon formerly served as a Summer Worker in California under the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The couple has one son, aged six weeks.

Tomer's to Open Toyland in Former Post Office Building

Harold and Helen Tomer, owners-operators of L.G. Rexall Drug Store at Main and Broadway are going to be awfully important in the life of area kids in the future.

They're opening a toy shop that will contain, they say, every kind of toy available. What's more, the shop will be tailored to the tastes of the lollipop set.

The new enterprise, to be known as Lemon Grove Toyland, will be opened in mid-September in the building which formerly housed the post office at 7771 Broadway. It is presently being remodeled.

Mrs. Tomer is especially enthusiastic about the new project, said that the store will be designed and decorated by a toy manufacturer's fixture specialist and the store would appeal to youngsters as a fanciful world of wondrous gifts and splashes of bright circus colors.

"We decided on Toyland because the demand for toys at our drug store is so great. The new location has more floor space than our drug store. By removing toy items from the drug store we will have more room for sundries there," she said.

The couple purchased the Lemon Grove Drug Store from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindley two years ago and have increased the volume month by month. They were successful drug store operators in Laguna Beach prior to coming here. Their drug store here will remain as one of the important links in the Rexall merchandising chain.

The new store, which they will operate in addition to the drug store, will have a doll section, a little girls' toiletries section, a section for jokes for kids and old kids, a section for juvenile gifts to juveniles and gift cards to go with them. All year round costumes, educational and instructive toys and devices will be handled but hobby items will not unless they fit into the toy category, such as radio and chemistry experiment items.

A section for baby gifts and a marshalling yards for electric trains will also be on perpetual display.

"We are going to have a caged animal motif around the sides of Toyland," Mrs. Tomer said. "We are designing all sorts of interesting little jungle fellows to occupy the cages. We are also planning a wishing well and once a month we will give some lucky youngster anything he 'wished' for," Mrs. Tomer said.

Toyland opening would be a three-ring circus, she said. "We plan to have clowns, real baby animals in cages, tv favorites of the younger fry, and naturally, free gifts, souvenirs and candy for all those who visit us during our opening ceremony," she added.

Marriage Licenses Issued to Grove Residents

Gaylord Rigger Jr., 21, and Donna Lehr, 16, of Lemon Grove, paid two bucks for a license to wed. Parent's consent affidavit accompanied the application.

Jerry Impala, 21, and Charlotte White, 18, of Spring Valley, were another couple of Cupid's victims.

Schuler Davis, 63, and Blanche Pierce, 50, both of Lemon Grove, got their license to wed on August 9. You have read of their wedding elsewhere.

Marriage licenses issued in June totaled 710 happy couples, and July's total was 565. The boys and girls are doing pretty well in August, too, if we may believe the wedding announcements in the "society columns." We went into a flower store after hours one day last week, found the lady in charge very busy with one wedding's decor and said she had three for the next day, August 18.

Two More Training Classes For Fire Dept.

Two more training sessions are scheduled for the Lemon Grove Fire Department. It was announced this week by Captain Harry Alexander.

Ward Ensley, state fire instructor from USC is conducting the fire week's course which is given each Monday night.

This week attendance was sixteen of the 18 man staff of the department. Next Monday classes will be on latest techniques in ladder use.

The classes this week were on hose couplings and nozzle use.

Hospital Authorizes Plans to Be Drawn for New Wing

Plans for an addition to Grossmont Hospital will be ready in about 90 days, a spokesman for the hospital district said this week. Authorization was given by the board to acquire schematic drawings from Pierra and Luckman, architects, who designed the present building.

National occupancy average of 70% has been exceeded regularly and Grossmont has been as high as 88.7 per cent in recent months, according to Louis Peelyon, hospital administrator.

District representatives expect state and federal funds to be made available for the additional wing without additional cost to taxpayers.

The present tax rate of 20c will be reduced to approximately 10c per $100 assessed valuation on the next tax bill because of high occupancy rate, and profitable operation resulting therefrom.

The new wing, should it be built, will house 78 more beds than the old it now has. A staff of 381 physicians and surgeons is maintained.

Patient load during the first year by communities was:

San Diego 1125
El Cajon 1250
La Mesa 1175
Lemon Grove 350
Spring Valley 235
Lakewood 260

Other communities 100 or less.

Methodist Youth Plan Workshop in Mexico

By Don B. Cooke, Pastor

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church leave Friday, Aug. 24 for an exciting but tough assignment in the "Valley of the Palms." Valle de las Palmas, twenty miles south of Toluca, "Operation Bootstrap" is the official name given this work project. Its purpose is to help the people of this valley help themselves. The developing of a five acre experimental farm, the digging of water wells, the repairing of a school house, clearing land and cutting down trees are all included in the work the youth will be doing. This they will do together with citizens of the valley.

Valle de las Palmas was originally a rich, fertile grazing valley for cattle. Rainfall was once very good. In 1943, a drought hit the valley and has continued to the present day. Cattle died off, and the people became destitute. Lack of rain has withered what few crops the people tried to grow. Horses are too weak to pull wooden plows. The people cannot buy tractors because they have no collateral and they have no training in the use of such machinery.

Despite the drought, there is water underground, sometimes only twelve feet below the surface. The valley apparently rests above an underground lake or river. To help these people help themselves, youth of Methodist Churches over the southland have initiated "Operation Bootstrap" and have begun to organize work parties to collect materials needed and go down to work side by side with the people. The area is a primitive wilderness, but with water and new crops, it can become once again a rich area, providing a real living for its inhabitants. Immediate needs include the clearing of land, digging of more wells, four or six inch centrifugal pumps and gasoline engines to pump water out, used lumber, and school supplies down to thumb tacks. If you know of any of the material supplies mentioned that are available, call me at HO 6-8005.

The youth of the Methodist Church will leave on their work trip Friday afternoon and return on Sunday afternoon. They will camp out and do their own cooking. They will be working at manual labor most of the time. Through this workcamp, it is hoped that not only will much tangible work be done to improve living standards in the valley, but also that the young people and their adult counselors will become better acquainted with the real conditions of life in Mexico, and gain a deeper appreciation for the needs of the people of Mexico.

Flannerys Catch Fish At $55 Each

Norman Flannery, who operates the Lemon Grove Tire Company on Broadway near Buena Vista has returned, together with his family, from a vacation in Colorado and other points.

He said that part of the trip was devoted to fishing and this part was made in the company of two other couples. The party estimated that they spent $500 on the trip and altogether caught 14 fish which figures about $55 a fish.

The Flannerys then proceeded to take a week's tour through the western states. With the couple were their kiddies Joyce, 9 and Richard 11 months.

involves 13 parcels of property and is 6.2 acres in size. "Every little bit added to what you've got, makes a little bit more," Les Freeman, La Mesa's genial city clerk, remarked when the count of votes was finished.

The board of supervisors, on motion of Supervisor Austin, modified a year-old policy, permitting persons legally classified as non-residents to receive county welfare aid for more than 30 days, as at present.

The modification will apply in cases where hardship would result for persons with mental or physical incapacities, or where minor children are involved.

Supervisor Austin introduced the policy change. It would permit the department of public welfare to use "reasonable discretion" in extending indigent aid beyond 30 days.

Under state law a welfare applicant need not be assisted if he has lived in California less than three years. During the three-year period applicants are classified as non-residents. Last week a man brought before a judge said he was behind in his payments to his wife because of his daughter. Said he had to send her money to Oakland each month, "cause she was from Kansas. Explained further that the daughter and her husband had not been in California long enough to get aid from Alameda county.

The policy limiting aid to 30 days was originally recommended by the board of public welfare last year and later approved by the supervisors. At that time approximately 40 cases of non-resident indigents were dropped from local welfare rolls. Many of the cases were later restored for aid under other welfare programs.

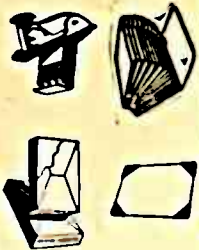

No Help for La Jolla

A legal opinion that the board of supervisors has no authority to contribute county funds to the La Jolla-San Diego County Theater and Arts Foundation was forwarded to the foundation.

The foundation, through a delegation, appeared before the board a few weeks ago and asked for aid, say $50,000, in establishing an art center, with a theater in connection, as a county wide aid to culture. Chief exponent of the plan was a handsome and straight speaking lady, whose concise and persuasive arguments moved this reporter in favor of a grant of funds evidently failed to pierce the rawhide-enclosed hearts of the supervisory body.

No such denial appeared when promoter Dillard asked for and got $150,000 for the Fiesta del Pacifico.

The opinion regarding the community playhouse said a contract could be made under state law Section 23351.3 of the Government code permitting counties to acquire land or construct buildings for non-profit organizations.

This foundation has acquired some 19 acres of land, through purchase or lease, but has no money for a building.

Hearing on the proposed adoption of "Master Plan, Borrego Arterial Roads" as part of the master plan of San Diego county, recommended by the planning commission, was shown on the map placed on the electric board, was adopted, after some discussion as to reserved rights of way, in case the area grew too valuable to purchase them.

Cardiff Sanitation District bought, for $15, an easement for sewer lines and appearances across a portion of Glen Park.

Final budgets of those special districts whose affairs and funds are under the supervision and control of the board of supervisors or for which said board is the governing body, and a letter from the county manager, recommending adoption by the board was on motion of Supervisor Austin, adopted.

68 Years Old Grove Resident for 5 Years Makes First Trip Out of State

Forest Allen De Frate, who was born in the "forest" at Descanso 60 years ago, has lived in San Diego County since his birth, never leaving the state in that time.

Mr. De Frate and his family—wife and five children—have lived at 8333 Golden Avenue, Lemon Grove, for the past five years. He has owned and operated a garage at 831 Second Avenue, in San Diego, for 30 years.

De Frate and a friend, Mr.

Local Educators

Attend Math Conference

The Council of Teachers of Mathematics, for the first time, held its National Conference in Southern California from August 19th through August 22nd at the University of California at Los Angeles, according to Mrs. Evelyn Lauritzen, local school principal.

Mrs. Marguerite Brydegaard of San Diego State College served as program chairman for the conference. Others participating from this area were Robert G. Ingram of Central School, San Diego; Robert Heilbron of Point Loma High School; William Stegeman from San Diego City Schools; and Dr. Richard Madden and Dr. Edwin Eagle, both of San Diego State College.

FROM VACATION

Dr. Elmer Lloyd Jones, of Trinity Presbyterian church returns from his vacation on Sunday, and will preach the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

During his vacation, Dr. Jones accompanied the La Mesa Chapter of Demolays on their cruise with the U. S. Navy. Reference will be made to the cruise and Demolay boys and families are cordially invited to attend.

Dean, owner of Dean's Van Line, left San Diego for New York and Rhode Island for a trip. Dean had a load to go east, and is bringing a load back. They went east via the southern route and will come back by way of the central route, thus giving De Frate a chance to see the country.

Mr. De Frate has been twice married, has two grown daughters by his first marriage. In 1945 he and the present Mrs. De Frate were married, and five children have blessed the union. Mrs. De Frate was born in Edgewood, Rhode Island, which is the reason for De Frate's visit to "Little Rhody." (He wanted to meet his wife's folks.)

Julia Finn De Frate, author of several books on early San Diego county history and a member of the Flinn Springs family, was Mr. De Frate's stepmother.

Mrs. De Frate has been interested in local Girl Scout organization, and has served as leader.

When they first moved to their Golden Avenue home, Mrs. De Frate says she thought Lemon Grove was the "coldest" place she had ever lived in. Accustomed to children every day, all with a "good morning" and a smile, the kids in her neighborhood gave no greetings, no smiles.

At one time she had, besides her five children, who always "played in their own back yard," 30 rabbits. One day a man came to the door with a petition to have her children sequestered and the rabbits done away with. She doesn't know yet whether or not it was a joke.

We hope to have an interview with the "Old Timer" when he returns, probably this week. Perhaps we will discover mutual friends and acquaintances. We have been living in this county for 70 years, knew several members of his stepmother's family, the Flinn clan.

Some plates tell their own story of the growing Ford Family

More and more Southern California families are becoming two-Ford families every day!

If you haven't liked the one-car problem in your family, better see your Ford Dealer right now.

The Lady Loves a Ford

... because it has that Thunderbird look—smart, low lines that say "GOT!"

... because she's "at ease" behind the Life Guard steering wheel that guides the mighty Thunderbird V-8 engine up front

... because gas bills fit her budget.

And, Mister, You'll Love a Ford, Too

... because Ford is still the lowest-priced of the low-priced three, yet is a luxury car that stands up to the best on the road today

... because your Ford Dealer couples a maximum trade-in allowance with easy payments, whether you're buying one Ford or two.

So why not make a "double date" with your Ford Dealer who has the answer for any family with a two-car garage!

Use of Dual Mufflers Banned By Traffic Officials

Has your young son souped-up jalopy a dual muffler on his car?

Or has your car had a "dual" installed on the car that has your name on the pink slip?

If either of the above queries receive an affirmative answer, we have news for you. You are eligible for a fine of from $50 to $125 if the cops pick up your young hopeful and find two exhaust pipes protruding where one pipe is legal.

Homeland Justice Court, Monday, had several cases of "dual muffler" evasions, and the culprits offered various excuses for the offense. From "the car had the dual when I bought it" to straight admission of having had the offending part installed.

These dual mufflers are purely noise makers, and have been ruled a traffic hazard. If a dual-equipped car comes up behind you and turns on with a terrific racket, you are liable to run into the car ahead or otherwise lose control. They have been banned by traffic officials, and the patrol officers are on the lookout. They inspect parked cars and look for duals. The driver gets a ticket and that brings him into Judge Hussey's court and a fine.

One lady, a Mrs. England, appeared in court with her son Lloyd, 13 years old, and taller than his mother. The ticket received by the youth showed ownership of the offending car in Mrs. England, who said she owned the car and was prepared to pay the fine, which Judge Hussey said could be $50, but was suspended for 12 months on the lady's promise to have a stock muffler installed at once. Her boy, being too young to fine or send to jail, was released.

One young man faces a fine of $11 for speeding and $125 for

Frank Shrivane, manager of The Big Wheel 3700 El Cajon Blvd., who installs dual exhaust systems says that duals, as such, are not illegal.

Reference to duals made here in the hot-rodders type straight-through exhaust system which creates a terrific noise. Many manufacturers include dual exhaust systems of the conventional type which it is said reduces noise, increases performance.

having "duals." "Keep the pipes off," said His Honor. This youth will see the judge again next Monday, and if he has removed the offending part and installed a stock muffler with one pipe, his fine will probably be reduced considerably.

Donald Beck, 13, accompanied by his mother, who aided him before the bench, charged with having defective brakes and no stop light, on his 1941 car, said this was his first ticket, so he got off easy.

Another youth with dual mufflers on his '36 Chevy agreed to install a stock muffler and ditch the dual. He will bring his car to court next Monday and get a $5 fine, perhaps. A deputy sheriff is on hand to inspect offending cars at Judge Hussey's request.

No Hums—No Nothing

George Bingham, no horn, no stoplight, not married, 18 years old and wearing a fine set of Fiesta whiskers, admitted having a Crown Dual muffler, which cost him $46—three months' savings—to have installed on his '40 Ford. George will come back next Monday and show the court that he has taken off the dual or be fined $125.

Edwin W. Ford, who lives at 364 Arizona St., Chula Vista, was parked on Imperial, found a ticket when he returned, was released.

One young man with a ticket from highway patrol, charged with having inadequate hand brakes and not wearing glasses, got a $13 fine. The judge found that his operator's license no longer required glasses to be worn.

Mr. Howie, driving a '52 pick-up, got a ticket from state highway patrol. He was doing 70, turned over and was hurt slightly. Nobody else injured. He paid $25.

Driver of a two-trailer truck for S. D. Cement Co. explained how come he got a ticket for passing on the right and scraping a private car. Said his loads weighed 76,000 pounds, and he couldn't stop in the space behind the car ahead so he got over to the right and almost stopped when he brushed a fender of the car. He has a "tattler" on his truck, showing speed, stops and all the data of his driving.

Asked how he pled, he said "Not guilty." Told by the court that the papers had not come in as yet from the highway patrol and a date for trial could not be set until the officers could be present to testify, this driver asked how much his fine would be if he pled guilty, was told $27. If he was found guilty, it would be more. So this cement truck Jehu decided to pay $27, as he would lose $30 for a day's work if he stood trial. Then there doubt load drivers get pretty good pay, what?

Square Dance News

Square Eighters held a Fiesta Ball last Wednesday which was their regular party night. It was a very colorful affair with all the dancers dressed in Fiesta costumes and the Legion Hall was beautifully decorated in a Fiesta theme by Nadine and Eddie Macdonald. Helen and Pete Mighetto called to the lively music of the Square Notes with the assistance of Kip Moss, Stan and Janice Bryan, Sylvia Conkle and Gladys Rogers.

Jim Evans won the raffle prize which was a very nice picnic cooler. Delight and Bob Rogers, Heartland Couple of the Month were selected to knock down the pinata which was chock-full of candy kisses and among all the kisses was one with a lucky number. Peggy Tonge found the lucky kiss and received a very lovely floral centerpiece. Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Jim Danielson, for men, Marge Shipperd, for women and Regina and Dick Spurgeon, for couples. Homemade cake and coffee were the refreshments of the evening.

We would like to thank the members of the following clubs who attended our Ball: Buttons and Bows, Lemon Eighters, Balboa Park Club, Four Leaf Clover, Square Jiggers and Bunton Busters.

Square Eighters are sponsoring a Beginners square dance class for adults and teenagers starting Thursday, September 13th at the La Mesa Elementary School with Helen and Pete Mighetto instructing. The class will be open for three weeks, so all you folks who haven't learned how to square dance yet, this is your opportunity—it's real good fun.

LEMON NEWS
Now 'C'mon, lads and listen to the call. We'll all square up at Friendship Hall.

The Lemonsighters get together to have a ball, and "hang" the weather. It was hot and it was humid on Thursday last but the Lemonsighters turned out in goodly number to swing and stomp to the calling of Stan Bryan.

Eight Squares were there, including a few couples from the Lettles. Al Lindsey announced the formation of a new club, the Country Cousins.

Our Pres., Chuck Poe, is now convalescing from an operation and was unable to be there. In his stead, Vice Pres. The live and lively music will be supplied by the H&H Tunerwisters. Calling provided by Stan Bryan and any and all guest callers.

Heartlands Square Dance couple of the month are Bob and Delight Rogers from Roy Closes Rhythm Rounders Club. On Saturday twenty couples from Circle 8 accompanied Bob and Delight up to Campe to visit Al Shaefer's Mountain Whirlers. The Chores attended the Southern California Round Dance Teachers Association meeting in Pasadena recently.

To join their square dance class this fall.

We'll promenade and do-a-do, Al Rider will call them fast or slow.

Remember September 10 is the starting date.

Dancing will begin very promptly at eight.

See you at the Spring Valley School.

S. V. Veterinary Saves Life of Parakeet

Parakeets frequently suffer from cancerous growths, tumors attack vital parts, and unless removed surgically the pet dies. Until recently, veterinary surgeons were loathe to operate, and when the parakeet's breast began to swell, death came slowly.

Owners of parakeets that have entrusted the affections of their folks may now rest easier, for Spring Valley has a veterinary surgeon who operates on the little pets, restores them to normal health and conversation.

Our attention to this disease that is becoming more prevalent among parakeets was drawn to an item in Neil Morgan's column in the Tribune, which stated that Ed Whalen, 1643 Fifth Avenue, had found a "veg" in Spring Valley who operated on his "Pay Day" and restored him to health, so that Pay Day and his owner resumed their repartee.

We asked rangers of parakeets if they knew of a vet who specialized in bird patients, finally located Dr. Fred E. Sherman, 3954 Willow Side Lane, in Spring Valley. He showed the clipping to Dr. Sherman, he admitted that he had removed tumors from Pay Day's breast, said somebody had called his attention to the item. (He kept the clipping, to send to his folks.)

Dr. Sherman, with two years' experience in veterinary practice as assistant to a Pasadena veterinarian, since graduating from an Alabama college, came to Spring Valley six months ago. He has operated on a number of parakeets with tumors, says they are no different from other animals. "The secret is anesthesia. Ether has long been the standby of surgeons, but is tricky and is difficult to determine the right amount to use. Dr. Sherman puts the patient in a paper bag after administering the ether and when he stops kicking, proceeds with the cutting of the bird's skin.

Skin tumors form under the skin, gradually increase in size and force the skin of the bird away from the flesh, ultimately puncturing the skin. Several tumors may grow, but usually there is a main one, whose removal is done with the usual technique.

The operation is painless and usually results in the bird's return to health.

This surgery costs $10, and if your bird becomes droopy, a consultation with Dr. Sherman, at the address given above, or phone HO 6-1288 may solve your problems and save your pet's life.

Dr. Sherman operates on any animal. His work on birds is only incident to his professional skill.—D. H.

August 14, Tom Montague was club caller, with guest callers Rae Ann Riggs and John Sauer. Hosts and hostesses were Gene and Evelyn Betscher and Hal and Dorothy Chambers.

The guest list included Bob Hillary, Sandy Cobb, Kathy Snell, Clinton Patesbaugh, L. E. Zook, Earl and Alice Jerru, Chuck and Kay Stewart, Gill and Lee Angus.

Happy birthday was sung to Mae Montague, Lil White and Evelyn Betscher.

A spoon dance was held in one square dance call and a penny was forfeited when the music stopped.

Coffee and sweet rolls were served.

Spring Valley Sewer Work To Start In November

Notices were published this week by the San Diego Board of Supervisors that bids for Spring Valley Sanitation District bonds will be accepted up to September 25.

On that day the sealed bids will be opened in the chambers of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center Building, San Diego. The bonds ($735,000) will be for the construction of a sewage plant and trunk lines.

A spokesman for the County Public Works Department said that work on the plant and lines should begin about six weeks after the contractor's bid is accepted. He said it should be about the middle of November, this year. The County is now working on the 1911 Act, which will take care of the laterals to the trunk line.

The County Board of Supervisors on August 14, ordered bids for the construction of the plant and lines to be opened on September 24, one day prior to the opening of the bonds bids.

Warren Barney, engineering chief of the Public Works Department, pointed out that separate contracts will be let on the trunk lines and the plant.

The control building is to be of brick and stucco and the treatment facilities of reinforced concrete.

In 1949 the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce held several meetings on the sewer question before the secretary was ordered to send a letter to the County Board of Supervisors, requesting they study the possibility of having a Sanitation District in the Spring Valley area.

After much deliberation the District was formed in 1950. In 1953, an election was held to float bonds to the amount of $1,717,000. Organized opposition defeated the issue.

Soon after that many meetings were held both pro and con. Several parcels of land in the district withdrew, making the district considerably smaller. And still, meetings were held and many harsh words spoken on both sides.

Never-the-less, in 1954 a second election was held to vote bonds to the amount of $735,000. That time they carried.

County Clerk Takes Over Delinquent Payments, to Dependents

Things have changed in the paying of monthly court-awarded payments to dependents.

Recently the county clerk has transferred to his department such delinquent accounts and the machinery of collection has started to operate.

Under the new system, if the superior court judge directs a husband to pay so much a month to his dependent spouse for her and her children's support, the county clerk's deputy, Marion McElroy, with his office on the ground floor at the main entrance to the "old" courthouse, keeps track of the delinquent husbands, and if necessary, sends out a warrant by a deputy sheriff and the gentleman is brought in and explains why he failed to kick in.

So if any of you ladies have not been getting your "check" on time, go to McElroy and state your case. He will get action, or your "x's" will board with Bert Strand for a while.

Chemical Engineer From Denver Visits Mother In Lemon Grove

Riley F. Williams, 22, a chemical engineer in the employ of Du Pont's Denver plant, was a welcome visitor at his mother's home in the Grove last week.

Riley, 22 years old, unmarried, graduated from college with a BS degree a year ago, and immediately after graduation got a job with the Du Pont concern, which is in dire need of engineers, as are all manufacturers at this time.

Riley makes dynamite. He and four pals are enjoying a vacation tour of the coast. His mother, Mrs. Mae Belle Williams, is a member of the office staff of THE REVIEW. His father, the late Roy A. Williams, was editor and publisher of the Ramona Sentinel, a pioneer San Diego county weekly newspaper, for seven years, from 1933 to 1940, and again, when he repurchased the paper from the widow of the then publisher, in 1953 to 1955. Mr. Williams died a year ago.

The business forecast is for another three or four good years. We are in favor of the forecast.

Cajon de Oro Little League Season to End Soon

A bird's eye view of the Cajon de Oro Little League's baseball grounds at Fuerte and Russell Road as it looks today.

The Cajon de Oro Little League will soon be coming to the end of its first season. It has been a highly successful season considering the fact that it started six months ago.

Much has been accomplished this year through the fine cooperation of its sponsors, cash donors and some very hard work on the part of parents of boys participating in this worthwhile program.

The league has organized four major teams and five minors, which enables 143 boys to take part in the summer program. Seven of the teams were sponsored and the other two were supported by cash donations and by parents.

The league hopes that with the interest shown this first year, that they can expand next year and add two more major teams, providing more sponsors come forward.

So far this year parents have constructed a playing field, partially fenced, a backstop, a concession stand, two sets of bleachers and two dugouts for the players.

Present plans for the winter months and prior to next season call for another set of bleachers, the field to be enlarged, all buildings and fences painted and the playing field planted in grass.

This year was of probationary status, and despite many problems, it was a huge success. The league is looking forward to participating in next season's tournament competition.

Based upon the caliber of boys playing and the interest shown this year, next year should be even better.

The league feels fortunate that its ball park is centrally located, within its over all boundaries. The park was developed on private land through the cooperation and assistance of the Tumbleweed Riding Club and the Fuerte Recreation Club.

Prior to next season, those interested should watch the papers announcing the dates of registration and tryouts. All boys 8 to 12 are invited to register for the activity.

Here are the results of recent games:
Saturday, August 18—Elks 12, Cubs 3. Castle was on the mound for the Elks. Motimeyer and Pye for the Cubs. Outstanding catches were made by Foster of the Cubs.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I'm away from the telephone for a few days enjoying the peace and quiet of the hills, so now I have time to express my belated thanks to you and your staff for the fine publicity you have given "Jr. Joba".

For the short time it has been in existence, I personally feel that it has been very successful. To date 59 girls and 83 boys have registered. 54 people have called and offered jobs (some wanted 2 at once) so altogether 99 Jrs. have had calls for work.

However, I would like to explain why some of the Jrs. even though they registered first, haven't been called.

I try to call the closest one to the work to save transportation problems. Also, I might call 4 or 5 and find no one at home or the line busy, so I go on to the next one.

There are several boys on my list that have had quite a lot of work, but I can call them at the last minute and they will go anywhere and do anything.

I truly enjoy helping these children, and I get my thanks when I talk to a polite one on the phone, who makes me feel that he appreciates what I'm doing.

Many thanks again to you and to all who have made this program possible for the "Jrs. of Lemon Grove".

Sincerely
Mrs. E. L. Kepner

REDUCTION OF SANITATION TAXES

ing carefully considered by the Board of Supervisors. Sixteen counties are interested and a 4-cent limit on Sales Tax is proposed, with one cent to go to the county. Had this proposal gone thru before July 1, 1956, $700,000 would have been added to the county's coffers.

Jean Vincenz spoke briefly said Lemon Grove Sanitation District was a credit to the pioneers, and that connection fees had proven helpful in reducing the tax rate. Brookside, with 400 homes, paid in $20,000 for connections.

Next week, PARKING will be the subject discussed. A larger turnout is expected by chairman Charles Serr. If you gent are interested in Lemon Grove's progress, either as a property owner or tenant, come to these luncheon meetings every week. A chance to express your views will be given you, and you can get any grievance off your chest.

These Men's Club meetings, with a nice lunch served and sprightly repartee, are a sort of miniature "Town Meeting." We hope you'll come, often.

ELECTRIC CARTS ADDED TO AREA GOLF COURSE

The Flying Hills Golf Club at Gillespie Field has received two electric carts for use on the 18-hole course. Harry Post, manager said this week. Eight more carts will be acquired next month.

Golfers were able to use the fourth green for the first time last weekend, leaving only two other temporary greens still in use at the course, Post said. The final two greens, numbers five and six, are expected to be ready for use in the near future.

Golf continues to gain in popularity as a recreational activity for residents of the east county area, the manager said. Post reported that 237 club memberships have been issued to date.

New members may sign up now for the balance of the year at a reduced fee of $5. The regular yearly membership fee is $20.

Post said that the membership fee has proven to be most attractive to golfers because they may play 18 holes at any time at a reduced green fee. The fee to members is 25 cents less for 18 holes than for non-members.

LEGAL REAGLES WANTED BY STATE

Competitive civil service examinations for four legal classes have been scheduled for the first time since the substantial pay increase received in July, 1954, the State Personnel Board announced.

The openings, all of which require active membership in the State Bar, exist in various State agencies throughout California.

Associate Counsel, Department of Insurance, paying $710-$862 a month, requires three years of insurance law practice.

Prosecuting Attorney, Division of Real Estate, $440-$676, requires two years of practice with emphasis on real estate transactions.

Applicants for Associate Counsel, $710-$862, must have three years of law practice with substantial experience in cases before a trial court or quasi-judicial body.

It's a Joke, Sun? ... "Oh, what a funny cow," the young thing from the city told the farmer. "But why hasn't it any horns?" "There are many reasons," the farmer replied. "Why a cow does not have horns. Some do not have them until late in life. Others are dehorned, while some breeds are not supposed to have horns. This cow doesn't have horns because it is a horse."

Congrats to the following guys n' dolls who have announced their betrothals: Rose Rizzo, former Helix lassie and local native daughter, and Dick Goodard, Pt. Loma. ... Joyce Loofer, former lassie who will wed Bob McRae, Grossmont, in October. ... Sharon Olney and Paul Valley will wed in September, another Helix-Grossmont team. ... and to Helix alumna Iris Givrey who will wed former San Diego Cavalman John Mauris.

SOCIAL SECURITY REPORTS STRETCHED TO COVER YEAR FOR FARM WORKERS

Employers of agricultural labor are no longer required to file social security tax returns on a quarterly basis, but may wait until the end of the calendar year, filing a single return for the entire period. The Department of Internal Revenue said that this change in the law was effective as of January 1, 1956, but that many agricultural labor employees continue to file quarterly returns.

Every employer of farm labor who pays any such worker $100 or more during the calendar year 1956 will be required to file a return covering the entire year on or before January 31, 1957, reporting all cash wages paid during 1956. Cash wages do not include compensation paid in the form of food, lodging, produce or other non-cash items. As in other types of employment, the social security taxes are imposed upon both employer and employee, two percent of the taxable wages being deducted from the employee's compensation, and two percent being contributed by the employer.

A recent Gallup Poll survey discloses that of the United States' estimated adult population of 102 million, 62 million persons use alcoholic beverages, 40 million do not.

The position of Assistant Administrative Adviser I, $644-$782, requires three years' practice including wide experience in the field of public civil law.

Further information and official application forms are available at Department of Employment office on Columbia Street.

Ron Swalstad, end, will play along with backs Dave Olson and Duane "Rudy" Rudzinski and guard Allan Newton. Ron and Allan claim Lemon Grove as home. Tom Weibum, popular Helix grid mentor, will assist Walt Harvey, Lincoln, in coaching of the southern squad that finds players from Mission Bay (1), San Diego (4), Hoover (2), Oceanside-Carlsbad (3), Chula Vista (2), Helix (4), Kearny (2), Lincoln (2), Escondido (2), Pt. Loma (1), El Cajon 1, St. Augustine (2), and Sweetwater. Ramona and Coronado with one Helix and San Diego have the largest single representation in this players' group. I favor the All-Los Angeles squad by 17 1/2 points. Predicted first string offensive lineup for the rebels: Ends, Bob Brooks (Mission Bay) and Alben Kimbrough (San Diego); tackles, Jerry Yocera (San Diego) and Giff Langstrom (Chula Vista); guards, Kent Barry (Hoover) and Leroy Dalton (Lincoln); center, Don Magoffin (El Cajon); quarterback, Pete Gurnea (San Diego); halfbacks Willie West (San Diego) and Otis Foster (Oceanside); and fullback Rudy Rudzinski (Helix).

Two Mondays ago the Highlanders lost to the Spartans, 47-42 in the Muni gym summer basketball games. That put the Highlanders into a three-way tie for third place out of 12 teams. Congrats to Dave Sucec, former long distance greyhound from Helix, who took second place in the 3-mile at the all-comers track meet held last Saturday at San Diego State College.

Old Globe! ... Only a few more chances remain to see the Old Globe's summer presentation of Volpone, Midsummer Night's Dream and King Richard II. The Shakespeare summer festival ends Sunday. Following will be the popular satirical comedy, "The Solid Gold Cadillac." The play opens on September 25.

Jack Fleming displays the fine 16 pointer he downed in the snow just outside the boundary of Jasper National Park in the Canadian Rockies. Jack, an employee at the Canadian National's internationally famous Jasper Park Lodge, captured his trophy with one shot from 400 yards. The elk head is probably the biggest taken in the area this season, but one faulty point prevents it from being a record. The animal was shot near Rock Lake, near Banff, Alta.

DORMANS USE NEW SWIMMING POOL AS PARTY SETTING

A new swimming pool was the center piece of a party Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Dorman, 6781 Hibiscus.

Twenty-four couples gathered around the pool's edge to enjoy the hospitality of the popular couple. Many old acquaintances were renewed as it was one of the larger, recent parties held locally, and the first one for the couple since they moved into their new home on Hibiscus Street a couple of years ago.

Well-heaped tables and a bar were adequately staffed by professionals. This part of the activity was enthusiastically enjoyed by the guests. Setting for refreshments was within a lane at the west end of the pool.

The beautifully landscaped surroundings added to the charm of the affair.

Among those present were: Col. and Mrs. Carlton Burgess; Dr. and Mrs. Calvin Nichol; Dr. and Mrs. Donald Johnson, and Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Dorn.

Also there were Messrs. and Mrs.: Robert Atchuck, Wallace Dorman, H. E. Moore, Milton Kelley, Max Goodwin and Roy Erwin.

Also Messrs. and Mrs.: Emmett Marshall, Jack Bryant, Ernest Billman, Lyle Kinsey, Norman Sexton, John Sutcliffe, S. H. Moore, Russell Sawyer, John Hughes, Hoyt Ray, Byron Netzel, Sam Soller, Henry Gody and Bruce Harms.

There were more serious moments, however, and during one of them, Mr. Curley announced that, as is common at this time of the year, there are a few openings in the troop and he would welcome inquiries from qualified boys up to the limit of the vacancies.

He also said that the Explorers' Crew would consider applications for the next thirty or sixty days and if there are any fathers interested in committee work with this active group, he would like to hear from them. Mr. Curley can be reached at HO 6-5489 and Mr. Godfrey, of the Explorers' Crew at JU 2-4834.

Come as Your Are Breakfast Staged By Woman's Club

Spring Valley Woman's Club members were called from their homes early last week to attend a "Come-as-you-are-Shipwreck" breakfast at the home of Mrs. Alma Arrington. They found themselves in a tropical Hawaiian island in Alma's beautifully decorated patio, with leis, ukuleles and tropical plants.

Early morning attire worn by the gals varied from night gowns and robes to house dresses and various other rigs. Many styles in pinned-up hair was worn and the latest in uncombed hair was shown. But many of the gals looked like they had just stepped out of a band box.

Mickey Gist danced a charming Hawaiian number. Ben Bond, president of the club, was called on to sing a couple of numbers. Mickey Gist and Jean Eskridge presented an amusing Hawaiian dance. Several of the members demonstrated the art of pogo stick jumping.

Coffee and coffee cake was served by Alma Arrington, Barbara Thorpe, Adeline Huskin, Gertrude Cline and Mickey Gist. Guests were Mrs. Blanche Fish, house guest of Maud Wigfield and Lola Barnes; Mrs. Nettie Hale, mother and house guest of Mrs. Ruth Taylor; Mrs. Lulu Hays.

Cause of Lynn Warden's Illness Still Not Identified

Otto Lynn Warden, Lemon Grove boy who came home from San Antonio where he is stationed in the Air Force, an Airman 3d class, and was taken ill while flying home in a plane piloted by his commanding officer, writes that he is slowly getting better, doesn't have such painful headaches, but the doctors still are unable to tell just what his ailment is. Something wrong with his blood.

Three letters in a bunch arrived Thursday.

Lynn went to Grossmont High for two years and transferred to Helix High when that seat of learning opened for business. His sister calls him a "half and half" boy.

The letters stated that some lumps have appeared under his arms, and they will be removed Friday. Lynn has lost 22 pounds weight in three weeks.

We are glad to tell you that his progress toward recovery is satisfactory to Army doctors in Brooks Army Hospital.

Telephone Company Holds Open House

The Pacific Telephone Company, La Mesa branch, held open house last Thursday, August 16, for families of officers and directors of the Spring Valley, Lemon Grove and La Mesa Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce.

The open house was held in the phone company's Lemon Ave. annex. On display were maps showing the new long distance dial calls, varied colors of new phones, and phones that may be used without lifting the receiver, which are especially convenient for the housewife, who may talk while doing her domestic work.

Two very interesting movies were shown, one showing the workings of long distance dialing, and the second showing what can happen when children fool around with the phone, and what happens when you dial a wrong number.

Four members of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce were present: President Bill Doughman and wife Dorothy, and Bill and Mary Clark.

Dolores Rogers, Court Clerk, On Vacation

Mrs. Dolores Rogers, clerk of Homeland Justice Court, is enjoying her annual vacation. The past two weeks she has stayed close to home in Spring Valley, but anticipates a trip by auto with her husband and two children, Allan and Frances Rose, to Lake Tahoe. They expect to return about September 1. Allan has been attending summer school at Helix High, with history as his chief "project." His completion of next year's history when he will be a Junior, will enable Allan to study mechanical drawing, and qualify him for a job after graduation from Helix. Frances Rose has been visiting her grandparents in Detroit, where she had a grand time, didn't want to come home. She finally decided that Spring Valley offered advantages over Detroit.

School Trustee and Family on Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong and two daughters, Patty and Susan, whose home is at 8230 Golden Avenue commands a magnificent view of the surrounding territory, left Friday evening for a week's vacation at Sequoia National Park. Mrs. Armstrong anticipated a delightful time, as they have engaged a cottage with all conveniences.

Frank Armstrong is the legal standby of the Lemon Grove District School Board, and looks forward to efforts of neighboring cities to grab pieces of our tax-paying customers.

Mrs. Armstrong's mother will stay in the home and have the Armstrongs' dog for company during the family's absence.
